NOWADAYS, not only Government exams but also exams of any academic institution check students on their Aptitude, for example, Bank PO, UPSC, CLAT, DU-JAT.

With the everevolving selection process of various companies, Aptitude plays a major and important strategic tool for shortlisting the candidates.

So, it is not an exaggeration when we say that Aptitude Building is one of the most important things that a student needs at this hour.

USES OF APTITUDE TESTS:

Aptitude tests are used for the purpose of prediction for future success both in educational and vocational careers.

They are used for the purpose of admission and selection of students in the college and technical institutions.

These tests are used to help the students in the proper choice of courses, subjects and careers.

Aptitude tests are used to help the students in the improvement of certain special traits.

They are used as they supplement other psychological test.
